• TITANIC ROLLS •

The player piano was still in its early days when the Titanic sailed in 1912. Much of the music played by the legendary band that went down with the ship had already been issued on rolls, and many of the songs have remained popular to this day. However, the master rolls of these early versions were long ago discarded and replaced by later, more contemporary versions. With help from collectors around the world we have drawn together an historic selection of the rare originals -- a unique time capsule of a tragic event that still haunts and fascinates us.

American Ragtime Includes:

1. Alexander's Ragtime Band; 2. Waiting For The Robert E. Lee; 3. Ragtime Cowboy Joe; 4. That Mesmerizing Mendelssohn Tune.

American Vaudeville Includes:

1. Shine On Harvest Moon; 2. Come, Josephine In My Flying Machine; 3. Oh, You Beautiful Doll.

Titanic Memorial Roll

Includes the last two songs played on board, plus a beautiful commemorative leader: 1. Nearer My God To Thee; 2. Songe d'Automne.

JOPLIN PLAYS JOPLIN

Scott Joplin was the greatest ragtime composer, yet he died in relative obscurity in 1917. It wasn't until his music was used in the film The Sting that he gained a worldwide audience and finally received the acclaim he deserved. Piano rolls he had recorded for the Connorized Co. in 1916 became the property of QRS in 1926.

Complete Alphabetical Listing

How It Works

Any letter that appears AFTER the catalog number is the price code:

Regular (No Code) 15.00 Code A, B, C 25.00 XMAS.....$35.00

General rule of thumb: If the catalog number is red, the price is $25.00. If the catalog number is black, the price is $15.00, if the catalog number starts with XMAS the price is $35.00

Letters that appear BEFORE the catalog number do NOT indicate the price. The "C" indicates a classical selection; "XP" indicates a long-playing piano roll containing two or more songs; "CEL" indicates a roll performed by a celebrity; "Q" indicates a reissued roll; "WF" indicates lyrics in a foreign language.

"See ---" means the song is contained only on a long-play roll, and is not available as a single. Ex: XP263-B Music Of The Night (See Phantom Of The Opera). The song Music Of The Night is contained only on the long-play roll Phantom Of The Opera. The complete listing of songs for The Phantom Of The Opera roll will be found under "P" for Phantom.

"See also ---" means that in addition to the Catalog number listed, the song is also available on a long-play roll. Ex: 10915 All I Ask Of You (See also Phantom Of The Opera). The song All I Ask Of You is available as a single (10915) and is also available on the long-play roll Phantom Of The Opera. The complete contents of the Phantom Of The Opera roll are listed under "P" for Phantom.

Q·R·S Roll Artist Gallery

J. Lawrence Cook started out as a songwriter, making homemade piano rolls to attract the attention of music publishers. Instead, his incredible skills as a roll arranger landed him at job at QRS in 1921. He arranged QRS rolls for over 50 years!

1900 - Melville Clark of Story & Clark Piano fame - forms QRS to supply music to the growing player piano market.

1909 - New U. S. Copyright laws recognize QRS rolls as sound recordings.

1916 QRS prints song lyrics on its rolls, sparking the first "karaoke" craze.

1918 - Gulbransen produces its first organ (reed pump organ).

In 1927, the QRS Music Company sold a record 10 million rolls, its greatest output ever.

1904—Axel G. Gulbransen forms a company supplying pneumatic components to the player piano manufacturers in Chicago.

1912 The QRS Marking Piano makes possible hand-played rolls by famous artists.

1917 - Gulbransen grows to be the world's largest manufacturer of Player Pianos.

1920 Continued growth adds QRS phonographs, records, radio tubes, and neon signs to the product mix.

1930 - The Great Depression fails to halt the production of QRS Rolls.

In 1900 the city of Grand Haven worked with Story & Clark to build a factory and bring new jobs to the city. They offered Story & Clark $20,000 and 10 acres. In return, Story & Clark promised to hire 100 people in the following three years. The deal was made.

1910 - Axel G. Gulbransen begins the manufacture of player pianos after acquiring several existing financially troubled manufacturers.

Roll Artist Gallery

Liberace During the 1950s–1970s he was the highest-paid entertainer in the world. Unlike the concerts of classical pianists which normally ended with applause and a retreat off-stage, Liberace's shows ended with the public invited on-stage to touch his clothes, piano, jewelry, and hands. Kisses, handshakes, hugs, and caresses usually followed.

EDDIE DUCHIN Became widely popular thanks to regular radio broadcasts that boosted his record sales, and he was one of the earliest pianists to lead a commercially successful large band. Playing what later came to be called "sweet" music rather than jazz, Duchin's success opened a new gate for similarly styled, piano-playing sweet bandleaders.

QRS Virtuoso Violin

The dream of a violin that can play itself has tantalized inventors for over a century. Now, modern technology has made the dream a reality—and without the use of digitally sampled sounds. Piano accompaniment can be derived from any MIDI source, but using PNOmation to play the genuine acoustic accompaniment provides today's ultimate listening experience in automatic music.

This technological wonder must be seen to be believed—a real violin, played mechanically.

As if guided by the phantom hands of a master violinist, the bow glides back and forth, actually creating the violin sound you hear. Even more amazing is the spectacle of the virtuoso Violin accompanied by an automated piano, driven by the famous QRS PNOmation system. This miraculous duo never fails to fascinate and delight listeners of every age and background.

All Signature Series pianos come standard with PNOmation Player with PNOscan digital record technology. All Heritage pianos come equipped with PNOscan and an option to add PNOmation. Story & Clark is a division of QRS

Story & Clark designed The Signature Series to be exceptional in every way. The proprietary scale designs, quality materials and craftsmanship combine to create a tone that is rich, warm and incomparable for its class.

Each piano in this collection is distinctive, and was created for the customer who seeks something beyond the ubiquitous spade-leg piano. The customer who instinctively understands that, as the most imposing piece of furniture in a home, it should reflect the unique style and tastes of its owner. From The Manhattan with its bold, clean lines and contrasting wood accents to The Park West, which takes the classic spade piano to new heights with its design details, The Signature Series collection offers uncommon quality, design and value in the marketplace

With the Story & Clark PNObar, your piano becomes a natural place for guests to come together in a setting that is both intimate and relaxed. The PNObar is also ideal for restaurants, hotels and other commercial venues where people gather to enjoy music. The bar is easily assembled and dismantled so you have the flexibility to put it on or take it off your piano according to your needs. Comes with four stools.

Designed with the institutional user in mind, this piano is an excellent choice for schools and churches. The Academy offers superior sound thanks to a soundboard and strings that are larger than many grands. It has four double-rubber casters for easy moving, a music shelf that runs the length of the piano (great for books and large scores) and a locking fallboard and lid to prevent damage. Meets all necessary state bid requirements and has PNOscan included.

The Academy

1. SHOULD I TIGHTEN THE ROLL?

No! Do Not Tighten It At All! In fact, before you play a roll you should LOOSEN it slightly, and tap it several times against a hard surface with the slotted spool down. This will help align the roll for playing.

2. WHY DO ROLLS GO OFF KEY?

This usually means the roll is not "tracking" correctly; in other words, the holes in the roll are out of alignment with the holes in the piano's brass tracker bar. This problem is almost always corrected by taking the roll off the piano, loosening it, and tapping it several times against a hard surface with the slotted end down. Do not tighten the roll before playing!

3. DOES MY PIANO NEED TUNING?

We recommend tuning twice a year. Even if it sounds fine to you, all pianos slip slowly out of tune and the longer you put off tuning, the bigger (and more expensive) the job becomes.

4. DO ALL THE ROLLS HAVE WORDS?

YES, except in the case of classical selections or instrumental pieces. The catalog listing will usually state "Instrumental" or "Piano Solo" in such cases.

5. HOW CAN I REPAIR OLD ROLLS?

All it takes is patience and Scotch Magic Tape! Use our Roll Repair Kit, Cat. No. 46000 for parts and instructions.

Sorry, we do not repair or copy old rolls.

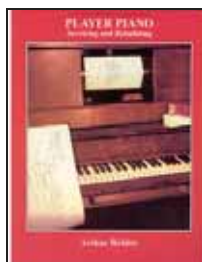

6. EIGHTY-EIGHT NOTE TEST ROLL

Cat. No. 46016.....$15.00

Use our Test Roll periodically to make sure that all the keys in your piano are functioning. The Test Roll plays each note, one at a time, from low B to high A-flat, for a total of 82 notes. It then tests them to see if they can repeat quickly.

7. TEMPO TEST

The Test Roll contains a Tempo Test, to see if the tempo settings on your piano actually reflect the speed at which the roll travels. Set your piano at tempo 70. Using a wristwatch or stopwatch, start timing the Test Roll when the first dotted blue line crosses the tracker bar. The second line should cross the tracker bar in exactly one minute. If it crosses sooner, your piano runs fast; if it crosses later, your piano runs slow. Remember, selecting your own tempo will not damage the roll or piano in any way. Choose the tempo that sounds best to you.

Inventing Entertainment

The Player Piano and The Origins Of An American Musical Industry
By: Brian Dolan

Player pianos and rolls made a musical piece standard, repeatable and easy — rather than something laboriously learned. It created a national audience for different types of music and their artists. It became a way of learning to play for many of the great pianists.

Dive into this fascinating history of the player piano, the music, and artists that drive them.
